Description

Robert Half is supporting a growing start-up in the medical device industry with their search for a strong Project Manager. This PM will collaborate with numerous stakeholders across the organization - including both technical and non-technical departments - to outline, scope, and execute multiple concurrent initiatives. The client is seeking PM's who can be on-site as needed in Los Altos and who possess excellent communications skills. The client is also prioritizing consultants with a background in manufacturing, supply chain management, regulatory compliance, and the medical device industry.

Requirements

5+ years Project Management Experience

Excellent written and oral communication

Experience in medical device industry, manufacturing, supply chain, and/or regulatory compliance would be ideal
